Our Voice

"We are about 2 things at Livewell Southwest. We are about the people and patients we serve, and we are about the nearly 3000 amazing dedicated and talented people that deliver the wide range of services we offer. Creating the right environment for people to excel is personally important to me and celebrating success is part of this. Taking the time to recognise excellence and make a nomination is every bit as important as being nominated and I thank you for taking time out of your busy lives to make someone feel special"
