

People Awards 2018

celebrating excellence

Nomination information

We are about two things at Livewell Southwest; the people we serve, and the (nearly 3000) amazing, dedicated and talented staff that deliver the wide range of services we offer.

Creating the right environment for people to excel is personally important to me and celebrating success is part of this. Taking the time to recognise excellence and make a nomination is every bit as important as being nominated and I thank you for taking time out of your busy lives to make someone feel special.

Dr Adam Morris, Chief Executive
