Reference Policy

1 Introduction

- 1.1 Livewell Southwest is committed to fairness and equity and values diversity in all aspects of its work as a provider of health and social care services and as an employer of people. We constantly strive to build a workforce that is representative of the community it serves.
- 1.2 Livewell Southwest is committed to eliminating all forms of discrimination on the grounds of age, disability, gender reassignment, marriage / civil partnership, pregnancy maternity, race, religion or belief, sex and sexual orientation in the provision of our services and in recruitment and employment. This enables an environment that is characterised by dignity and respect which is free from harassment, bullying and victimisation.
- 1.3 The organisation is committed to the application of fair and consistent procedures for the requesting and processing of references. This policy aims to provide all employees with frameworks for requesting references for new employees and current employees moving into new roles, along with the provision of references, including employment references, character references, and other references.

2 Purpose

- 2.1 The purpose of references is to obtain information, in confidence, from a third party to provide a factual check on a candidate's employment history, qualifications, experience and/or an assessment of the candidate's suitability for the post in question. The information sought usually includes length of employment, job title, brief details of responsibilities, reasons for leaving etc.
- 2.2 Livewell Southwest has a duty of care to the employee/former employee and the prospective employer in preparing a reference. This is to ensure that either the individual or prospective employer does not suffer a loss as a result of inaccuracies in a carelessly drafted reference. For this reason, it is therefore essential that all references are:
 - True, fair, factual
 - Does not give a misleading impression overall
 - Does not unfairly present a poor image of the individual

Therefore references should be prepared with reasonable care. For further advice, please contact the HR department.

- 2.3 This policy applies to all employees of Livewell Southwest. It is important to ensure the application of the most appropriate policy given the historical employment record of the employee concerned, particularly as specific contractual policy arrangements may apply following transfer processes (known as TUPE).

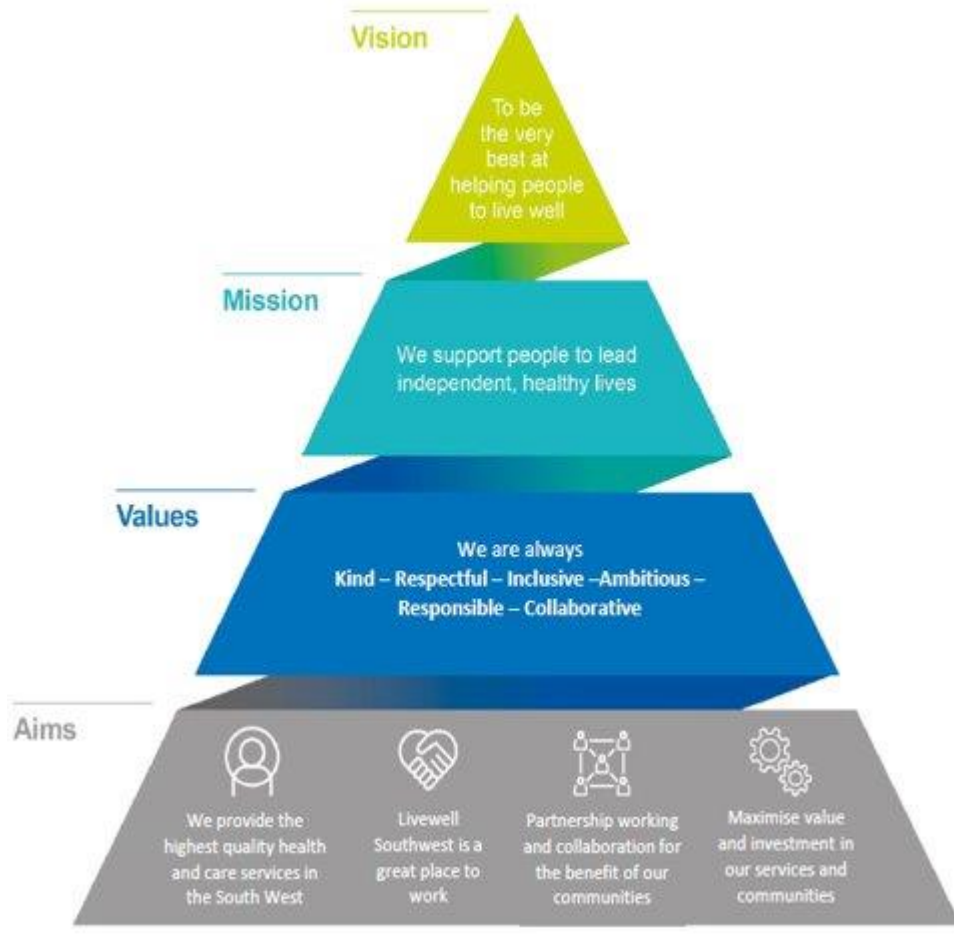

3 Definitions

- 3.1 References are defined as information provided to a prospective employer relating to the employment history of a current or former employee including positive or negative factual comments about an employee's job performance. Also, employment history and salary confirmation details provided for mortgages, rental arrangements, etc. There are usually two forms of references – employment reference and/or personal character reference.
- 3.2 Employees are any individual working under a contract of employment for Livewell Southwest. For the purposes of requesting and providing a reference, this includes volunteers who have a signed Volunteer Agreement with Livewell Southwest.
- 3.3 Referee is the person preparing the reference.

4 Policy statement

- 4.1 Livewell Southwest is a social enterprise and as such recognises its responsibilities towards all sections of the community. Livewell Southwest is committed to:
- Promoting Livewell Southwest as an employer of choice
 - Ensuring that the recruitment and selection procedure promotes a positive image of the organisation
 - Recruiting skilled people to enable Livewell Southwest to achieve its aims and objectives
 - Promoting objective, fair and transparent recruitment practices throughout Livewell Southwest
 - Ensuring that selection decisions are based on objective and justifiable criteria
 - Ensuring recruitment methods including references are cost effective and efficient
 - Ensuring that we follow the most up to date Safer NHS Recruitment/ documentation standards as instructed by NHS Employers, NHS England, The Home Office and Counter Fraud.
- 4.2 The following table shows the organisation's strategic pyramid, setting out its vision, mission, values and four strategic aims.

Vision, Mission, Values and Aims

- 4.3 Livewell Southwest aims to design and implement policies that meet the diverse needs of our service and workforce, ensuring that none are placed at a disadvantage over others, in accordance with the Equality Act 2010.

5 Duties & Responsibilities

- 5.1 The Chief Executive is ultimately responsible for the content of all policies, implementation and review.
- 5.2 Line Managers are responsible for:
- Ensuring that this policy is adhered to within their specified area and should take consideration of it when processing reference requests.
 - Ensuring that employees are made aware of this policy and understand their responsibilities in relation to it.
 - Providing a reference which is in substance true, accurate and fair with consideration to the mutual trust and confidence. The reference must not give an unfair or misleading impression overall, even if its discrete components are factually correct.

The organisation may be liable to a claim of negligence if the employee suffers loss as a result of a manager failing to exercise reasonable care in the preparation of a reference.

5.3 Employees must:

- All employees have a responsibility to familiarise themselves with this and other relevant policies and procedures.
- All employees must inform their line manager immediately if approached for a reference which they are not authorised or in a position to provide on behalf of the organisation.
- Employees should ensure they provide external recruitment representatives with accurate contact details of their line manager to ensure their reference request is processed in timely manner.
- As a matter of professional courtesy, all employees are expected to inform their line manager if they are applying for any position, either internally or externally, which requires a reference from their employer.

5.4 Legal Obligation

5.4.1 There is no legal obligation on an employer to provide a reference for an existing or former employee. However, refusal to provide a reference can be interpreted negatively by the prospective employer and may be perceived by the individual as victimisation amounting to direct or indirect discrimination.

5.4.2 Refusal to supply a reference should only be exercised in limited circumstances e.g., where an employee is currently bringing a claim against the organisation, or where the individual left prior to the formation of the new company on the 1st October 2011. Please discuss this with the HR team.

5.5 Inaccurate References

5.5.1 An employee or former employee could bring an action against their employer for libel or defamation of character, if they consider the reference to be inaccurate. It is essential therefore that all information provided can be substantiated with factual evidence, if challenged at a later date. Referees must avoid using vague statements that could be misleading or open to interpretation.

5.5.2 An employee or ex-employee can bring a claim for unlawful discrimination where the employer or the individual who provided the reference has provided an adverse reference for a reason linked to one of the protected characteristics (age, disability, gender reassignment, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion or belief, sex and sexual orientation).

6 Requesting References

6.1 Once a candidate has been interviewed and considered suitable for appointment, a conditional offer of employment can be made subject to all of the pre-employment checks being successful as detailed in the Recruitment and Selection Policy. This includes reference requests for all appointments (internal and external).

- 6.2 External candidates shall require a minimum of two references, of which one must be from the current, or last, line manager/employer/employers HR department. External candidates who are currently employed with an NHS organisation will require a minimum of one reference from their current NHS employer(s).
- 6.3 Requests for references will be issued to the referees detailed on the relevant section of the successful candidate's application form or via the information provided on NHS jobs. Where full and relevant referee details have not been provided, candidates will be asked to confirm this information to the recruitment team, including referee contact details.

Requests for references will be issued by the recruitment team within 5 calendar days of the appointing manager confirming the outcome of recruitment and selection processes. In the event that the candidate has not indicated their permission to contact their referees the recruitment team representative shall contact the candidate to advise them of the date references will be issued.

External References

- 6.4 All external referees will be provided with the Livewell Southwest standard reference request form for completion and return to the recruitment team (Appendix 1). Or via the electronic request via NHS jobs. (Appendix 2) However, the organisation recognises that some external organisations may use a reference pro-forma of their own.
- 6.5 However in exceptional cases where timescale pressures prevent this it may be appropriate for the recruitment team representative to obtain a telephone (verbal) reference. A record of the telephone reference should be retained, (Appendix 3).
- 6.6 External appointments shall require a minimum two references and must cover the last three years of work and/or training history to date, explaining any gaps in employment/training with a Personal Statement (see Appendix 4) in accordance with NHS Employer requirements. With regard to Adult Social Care five years of work and/or training history to date must be provided. Also, where a candidate has had more than one employer during this five year period a character reference (Appendices 5 and 6) would be required, where the referee has known the candidate for the chronological five year period. (as required by Local Government Safeguarding instructions) The number of references may differ for each applicant, depending on how many episodes of employment/training they may have had in the last three/five years prior to making their application. Any gaps in employment history may be explored with the applicant for clarification by the recruitment representative via the aforesaid Personal Statement.

Where it may be difficult to obtain references and all avenues have been explored the recruitment team it may be a requirement for an OCA41 form to be requested by the candidate from HMRC.

Character references

When required a character reference will be requested. The referee must be on the NHS Employers/UK Governments list of recommended persons of some standing in the community. (See Appendix 7) The character referee will need to have known the person for 3-5 years and can comment on the candidate's honesty, reliability and trustworthiness. The reference will be requested using the character reference template

Add the standards, the persons of good standing list and the character reference template

Self-employment reference

For periods of self-employment, references should be sought to confirm that the individual's business was properly conducted. This may include seeking information from customers or clients, bankers, accountants, HM Revenue and Customs, or Companies House.

Armed forces references

Applicants from the armed forces should possess a Certificate of Service under cover of an official letter. Where the individual can present this, employers may accept this instead of needing to request a separate factual reference. Certificates of service contain security marks such as holograms and therefore employers should verify

- 6.7 It is recognised that defining a "satisfactory" reference is very subjective and the decision ultimately lies with the recruitment team with the support of the appointing line manager. Line managers may review the reference documents by contacting the recruitment team to arrange an appointment.
- 6.8 If when conducting employment checks a reference comes back that is not considered satisfactory, in the opinion of the recruitment team, then the offer of employment can be legitimately withdrawn. This may include circumstances where no references are obtained or where a reference is incomplete, unsatisfactory (i.e. poor, previously dismissed, etc.), or gives limited assurance.
- 6.9 The recruitment team and appointing managers should however take reasonable care not to jump to conclusions about what has been said or not said in a reference. If anything is vague the recruitment team should contact the referee for clarification and carefully record the outcome.

General Principles

- 6.10 Completed references shall be stored on the personnel file within the HR department in accordance with the organisations document management protocols for the retention and destruction of sensitive personal information.
- 6.11 Returned references shall be reviewed by a representative of the recruitment team with the support of the appointing manager. The recruitment team representative shall be responsible for reviewing and considering the appropriateness of the reference and shall mark the outcome on the reference paperwork.

- 6.12 In accordance with current legislation, candidates may request to review any reference received. The organisation shall seek the permission of the referee where possible prior to release however page 1 of the reference can be released immediately and page 2 requires permission from the person who has supplied the reference. If the referee has used their own format for the reference, permission to release the information will be required.
- 6.13 Where an offer of employment has been withdrawn due to the reference information received, the recruitment paperwork shall be stored within the HR department in accordance with the organisations document management protocols for the retention and destruction of sensitive personal information.

7 Provision of References

- 7.1 Line managers should prepare and supply references in consultation with the HR Department.
- 7.2 Where there has been a change of management and the individual's current manager is not suitably familiar with their work, then the approved manager must liaise with the previous manager and incorporate their comments into the reference accordingly. Where the previous manager is either no longer employed by Livewell Southwest or unavailable at the time, then this must be communicated to the person requesting the reference.
- 7.3 Requests to Livewell Southwest to provide an employment reference must be received on the headed notepaper of the company/organisation making the request. Some organisations, such as the NHS may request references as part of an automated process by e-mail which can be easily verified by contacting the company/organisation. If this is not possible, please refer to the HR department for advice.
- 7.4 Any requests for a reference received should be passed to the line manager as soon as reasonably possible to ensure it can be processed in a timely manner. Livewell Southwest aims to process all reference requests within 14 calendar days of receipt.
- 7.5 Due to the complex nature of the organisation, line managers must ensure the employee (or former employee) is eligible for an employer reference from Livewell Southwest by considering the historical employment record of the individual.
- 7.6 Any uncertainty regarding the provision of references should be clarified with the HR department who will provide advice and guidance on the provision of references.
- 7.7 Where possible the person dealing with the reference request should seek confirmation from the employee to check it is a genuine request. If the person dealing with the request has any doubts about whether or not the individual has given his/her consent in line with GDPR and/or the accuracy of any statement made, they should contact the individual to for clarification and check whether or not he/she wants still wishes for a reference to be provided.

- 7.8 Any employment references provided must be in writing using the organisation's standard pro forma (Appendix 8) to ensure consistent information. This will be supported by a covering letter (Appendix 9) which should explain that it is the policy of Livewell Southwest to respond to requests for information in a standard format.
- 7.9 There is an implied duty of mutual trust and confidence between the referee and the employee. Where a manager supplies factual information that concerns a shortfall in the ability of the employee/former employee, this must only be included if the shortcomings have previously been brought to the individual's attention such as performance, timekeeping or attendance for example. In these cases an appropriate discussion has taken place and a record of that discussion has been documented. Where there are issues that the employee has not formally been made aware of, these should not be included. Disciplinary or performances that that concluded some time ago should also not be included, particularly if that particular disciplinary process did not have a bearing on the individual's reasons for leaving their current employment.
- 7.10 Where a reference is requested for an employee who has been dismissed for gross misconduct, or has been suspended or is subject to a current disciplinary investigation, guidance must be sought from HR on how to respond this this circumstance. Guidance from HR should also be sought where Livewell Southwest has been asked to confirm in a reference the number of days' sickness absence which an individual has had in the previous 12-month period and/or the reason(s) for any absence(s) as part of a conditional offer and any information provided will need to be approved in advance by the HR Department. In such circumstances, a member of the HR Department will double check with the individual concerned that the information to be provided to the prospective employer is 100% accurate and seek their approval on a draft response before disclosing it.
- 7.11 The reference must not contain personal opinions about the individual's performance or conduct. It is the responsibility of the person preparing the reference to ensure that the information provided is true, accurate, fair and not misleading.
- 76.12 A disclaimer should be included in the reference making it clear that, while the information provided is, to the best of the organisation's knowledge, completely accurate, Livewell Southwest cannot accept any liability for decisions based on it.
- 7.13 Once completed, the reference should be forwarded to the prospective employer. The reference should be marked "private and confidential" and "for the addressee only" and sent by post or secure email to the prospective employer.

- 7.14 If the person preparing the reference receives an enquiry from the prospective employer for clarification of information given in the reference, they must ensure that they do not go beyond the content of the reference in the information provided.
- 7.15 Any such enquiry should, where possible, be dealt with in writing to avoid any subsequent confusion. If the enquiry is dealt with over the telephone, a written record of the information provided must be made at the time of the conversation and stored within the personnel records of the employee whom the reference concerns.
- 7.16 A copy of the references documentation, and any subsequent enquiries, should be held securely within the line management records in accordance with the Livewell Southwest policies on record retention. Thereafter, the reference should be disposed of securely.

References Supplied Under a Settlement Agreement

- 7.17 References are often included as part of the negotiated terms of a Settlement Agreement (previously known as Compromise Agreements). This means that when reference requests are received in connection with an employee who left the organisation under a Settlement Agreement, the individual providing the reference should seek advice from HR. It is possible that a reference format has been arranged as part of the Settlement Agreement and only this agreed reference should be supplied. If a reference has been pre-agreed, any references supplied must not deviate from these sets of words.

Personal Character References

- 7.18 From time to time representatives of the organisation may be approached by current or past employees with a request for a personal character reference. Personal character references are personal opinions of a person's character and must not be written on behalf of Livewell Southwest. It is entirely at the discretion of the referee as to whether they provide this or not.
 - 7.18.1 If agreeing to provide a personal reference the referee must make it clear that any statement made is their personal opinion and that any information provided comes from them.
 - 7.18.2 Personal references must be written on the referee's own stationery and sent as from their home address or personal e-mail address. They must not be written on headed paper nor sent from workplace e-mail addresses.
 - 7.18.3 It is advisable, however, that the referee restrict their reference to factual information for which they can provide evidence if required to do so.

Receiving a Request for Other References

- 7.19 The organisation often receives requests for additional references such as mortgage or rental references. It is the organisation's policy that references for mortgage or rental agencies may only be given by the payroll provider at Shared Business Services (SBS). No other person in the organisation is permitted to provide a written or verbal reference about current or former employees. Any requests for a reference should be passed to SBS within 14 calendar days of receipt. The individual dealing with the reference request should ensure, where possible, that the employee whom the request for the reference relates has given their consent in line with GDPR (preferably in writing) for a reference to be provided to the named company requesting the reference.

References for Others

7.20 All requests for references for contractors, temporary workers, or employees from partnership agencies should be referred to the HR department who will respond on behalf of Livewell. It is the organisation's policy not to provide professional references to employees of external organisations.

Reviewing the Reference Provided

7.21 Employees may request to review a copy of the reference documentation by contacting their line manager in writing. The line manager will reasonably consider the request.

7.21.1 Current employees who are not satisfied with the reference documentation provided may wish to discuss the situation with their line manager. Alternatively they may refer to the Grievance Policy where appropriate.

7.21.2 Former employees who are not satisfied with the reference documentation provided may wish to refer to the Compliments, Concerns & Complaints Policy.

8 Training implications

The HR department provides advice, policy awareness raising and coaching to managers as and when required. Training will be provided to Managers, as required, on their duties in relation to this policy.

9 Monitoring compliance

Failure to comply with the contents of this policy may result in disciplinary action. Please refer to the Disciplinary Policy for further details.

All policies are required to be electronically signed by the Lead Director. Proof of the electronic signature is stored in the policies database.

The Lead Director approves this document and any attached appendices. For operational policies this will be the Head of Service.

The Executive signature is subject to the understanding that the policy owner has followed the organisation process for policy Ratification.
